2024

Ebony Nave graduated with a BFA in Acting from QUT in 2017, where she received two prestigious scholarships. Her acting credits include a range of notable productions such as 'Blackrock' (La Boite Theatre), 'Single Asian Female' (State Theatre Company), 'Romeo and Juliet' (She Shakespeare), 'The Life That I Gave You' (NIDA), and 'The Merchant of Venice' (Gardens Theatre). Her film and TV appearances feature roles in 'Home and Away' (Channel 7), 'Streamline' (Screen Australia), '500 Miles' (Mad Anth'm Pictures), 'Conscious' (Sinai Entertainment), 'Dreamlink' (Mountain of Youth), 'Loved' (Samuel Van Grinsven), and 'Of Our Fathers' (Matthew Alexander Hill).

Beyond the stage and screen, Ebony has contributed to various productions, including 'Colin from Accounts' (Stan), 'Home and Away' (Channel 7), and spent a year with SONAR MUSIC and VANDAL. She has also produced her own film and theatre projects, including 'Love is Shit', 'Mangoes', and 'The Double Bill'. Additionally, Ebony spent four years as a presenter and producer for 'Big Review TV' and served as a travel presenter on 'ZIP!'.

Currently, Ebony works as an actor and freelance painter, infusing her love of color and composition into her film and theatre projects. She is dedicated to collaborative artistry and freelancing across multiple disciplines, including acting, voice-over, modeling, painting, producing, production design, and writing.
