

Emilie Walsh (she/her)

Originally from Mildura, Emilie is a Ballarat based actor/writer that has had a passion for the imaginative and a deep dedication to the art of storytelling from a young age. She began her formal training at the Federation University Arts Academy in 2023 and graduated in 2025. During her time at the Arts Academy, her credits included The Beau Defeated (Mrs Trickwell/Chris), directed by Kellie Tori; The Lower Depths (Satin 1) under the direction of Bagryana Popov; and Orlando (Mrs Grimsditch) directed by Kim Durban. She also performed in the student-devised production A Seat at the Periodic Table. A lover of all thing's literature and theatre, Emilie has a particularly strong interest in classical theatre.
