

Based in Perth, Western Australia, Ella is a talented young actress with a passion to perform. Ella has won 3 best actress awards at various film festivals for her performance as Jasmine in 'The Runaway'. She also plays Charlotte in the web series pilot, Trunk Travellers, which was a semi-finalist at the Los Angeles Independent Film Festival Awards. Other credits include lead roles in the short films 'Incognito', 'All Good', 'Bunker Down Under' and 'What Remains', as well as the virtual reality documentary 'Impact: Beyond the Night Sky', directed by Kath Dooley. She also played Gracie in the web series 'What We See' and was a supporting role in the short film 'Paper Cuts and So Do Words' for the Make a Difference Foundation WA.

Ella is a very vibrant, hard-working and outgoing young actress. She is adept at both a US standard accent, US Southern Accent and a RP English accent. She also enjoys dancing and has trained from a young age in the styles of modern jazz, contemporary and lyrical. Her friendly, down to earth nature, professionalism and ability to take direction makes her a pleasure to work with.