

Jason Perini is an actor, writer and director.

Jason has worked consistently as an actor in theatre and on screen and is an in demand Voice Over Artist working regularly across brands such as KFC, GIO, Sony, QBE, and Samsung.

His recent television credits include Season 2 of Jane Campion's series 'Top of the Lake', Underbelly 'The Golden Mile' and a host of commercials.

The short Film 'A Little Bit Behind' which Jason co-wrote and starred in has won awards at home and internationally, in which Jason won Best Actor both in Australia & at the International 48hour short film awards in America and screened at the Cannes Film Festival in 2012. 'Kitchen Sink Drama' in which Jason also played the lead was a finalist at Tropfest Australia in 2012, screened at the New York City International Film Festival and won 'best comedy' at the BrownFish International Film Festival in New York.

'Casa Del Sueños' a short film which he wrote and stars in is part of the Tropfest Summer Series and currently doing the film festival rounds including , 'The Projects Short Film Festival' the 'HA! fest Comedy Film Festival' (USA), 'The Sunderland Shorts Film Festival' (UK) and the 'Miami Short Film Festival' (USA)

In 2016, Jason wrote and directed his short film 'The New Empress' which was the recipient of the 'Jameson First Shot' series. The short stars Maggie Gyllenhaal and was produced by Kevin Spacey and Dana Brunetti.