

David Cuny

David was Born in Sydney but raised in Brisbane by French and English parents. He grew up in a musical household, playing various instruments whilst singing and acting his was though school. His passion for performance was cemented in his final year of school and he went on to gain his diploma at the Australian Dance Performance Institute (ADPI) before being accepted into WAAPA's Bachelor of Music Theatre in 2014. Whilst at WAAPA, David has played an eclectic mix of characters in both regular theatre and musicals, working with directors such as Jason Langley, Adam Mitchell and Trent Baker whilst also developing a passion for film and television under the guidance of various teachers including Annie Murtagh Monks, Simon Stokes and the head of WAAPA Acting, Andrew Lewis.

TRAINING

2015-17	Bachelor of Art (Music Theatre) Western Australian Academy of Performing Art (WAAPA)
2014	Diploma of Art (Music Theatre and Commercial Dance)

FILM

2017	KNOCK OUT	Steve	WA Screen Academy Dir: Laurie Mcainsh
2017	VIVID 'MAGINATION	'No One Cares' Guy	WA Screen Academy

TELEVISION

2013	DRUMSTICK SUMMER TVC	Pool Swimmer	Peters Ice Cream
------	----------------------	--------------	------------------

THEATRE

2018	GREASE	Danny Zuko	Princess Cruise Lines
2017	CHICAGO	Billy Flynn	WAAPA Chor: Michael Ralph
	42 nd STREET	Mac	WAAPA Dir: Jason Langley
	HEATHERS	Ram Sweeney	WAAPA Dir: Andrew Lewis
2016	RENT	Roger	WAAPA Dir: Adam Mitchell
	THE CRUCIBLE	John Proctor	WAAPA Dir: Crispin Taylor
	A MIDSUMMMER NIGHT'S DREAM	Lysander	WAAPA Dir: Trent Baker
	BRING IT ON	Ensemble	WAAPA Dir: Jay James Moody Chor: Michael Ralph

