

Caspar Sergio Hardaker

Caspar is an actor-writer born and bred in Sydney's Bankstown and Inner-West regions. From a young age he was trained in orchestral and Jazz Saxophone (Alto and Tenor). He was also a rapper/singer for hip-hop group Flip the Script between 2013-2016 with songs on Spotify, Bandcamp and Youtube. Caspar also studied for three years at UNSW and earned a bachelor degree in Theatre and Performance Making and Creative Writing in 2015. He has acted in filmic projects including Girt By Fear, (NYC WEBFEST, Dir. by Yiani Andrikidis) and LISA IRL, (Sydney Film Festival, dir. by Darya Karbovska). Caspar was part of the cast of The Dignity of Risk, (Dir. by Natalie Rose, Harness Shopfront/ATYP Co-production), which earned a Sydney Theatre Award in 2017 for Best Production for Young People.

As well as this, Caspar is a voracious writer for stage and screen. He has written a short film titled A Walk to the Pub and Goodbye, Alex and has completed several plays including, Europa, Flying Fox and Wolf. He continues to write for stage and screen, honing his craft and pursuing accurate and truthful representations of life as we know it through powerful storytelling.
