-Actor-Teacher-Director

Mission statement

Powerful acting has within it a visceral truth. It is this truth, and the risking of this truth, I believe, that compels any audience. My role as an actor practitioner is to access this within myself.

Summary

As a professional actor with over 25 years experience, I have performed in feature films, short films, and television productions. I have toured NSW and W.A. in regional theatre productions, some of them self-devised.

I have produced and directed short films and plays, including applications for the national film festivals, Tropfest and the Short and Sweet Theatre Festival.

I am seasoned at auditioning and teaching audition technique, having assisted many successful applicants gain entry into the NIDA and Nepean full-time acting courses. I have had many years improvising and teaching improvising.

My acting mentors and teachers are world class, including Lisle Jones, Dean Carey, Lyn Pierse and George Spartels.

Education: The Western Australian Academy of Performing Arts,
W.A.A.P.A. (theatre) 1992 graduate.
