

Kai began his storytelling journey initially as a way to gain self-confidence. That slowly became a passion of his. He had since appeared in several theatre productions such as silent night lonely night (as jerry), 'yin' in a comic version of snow white and Oliver.

He did 2 short films with Sydney film school fairly recently and also have experiences with commercials. In terms of training, he since has taken acting classes with NIDA, AFTT and also an accent class with screenwise.

Kai is an avid martial artist, having studied at progressive combat systems under sifu Arthur Ligopantis in styles such as kali (weapon based system) and empty-handed arts (Muay thai,jkd,tkd).Most recently he's been training at pride gym in mma and jujitsu.

Kai is also a proficient guitar player, have been taking private lessons with Jeff Andrews at international school of music for a period of 3 years.

As a martial artist, he strives to develop himself through hard work and discipline. As an actor, he seeks to express himself truthfully without constraints.}
