

Melissa Langley is an actress, model, singer and presenter. She began training in theatre at the Young Australian Broadway Chorus for 3 years before moving onto Film & Television where she undertook short courses and workshops at some of Melbourne's renowned training facilities such as TAFTA, Meisner Melbourne, Howard Fine, Actor's Arise and Film & TV International to name a few. Melissa is a determined, motivated, passionate individual who brings her utmost professionalism to any project, takes direction well and is great and easy to work with. Some of Melissa's latest credits include the lead role as Saskia in the 2023 Theatre productions of '33', scoring a lead role on the Ice Twist TVC in 2014, a bit part on Offspring in 2015 and lead presenter in Zoo Victoria's 2018 Summer Campaign in 2018. She has also performed in numerous short films (lead and supporting roles), theatre shows, music video's, a couple of independent feature films and has also presented on some Channel 31 TV shows. She was also a soloist at the 2001 and 2004 Carols by Candlelight event at Jells Park where she performed 2-3 songs. In her spare time Melissa enjoys camping, fitness activities, jazz, reading, working on her passion and cooking.