

---

MARQUEE

---

LOUIS HUNTER

Louis Hunter's international acting career spans both stage and screen.

Louis can most recently be seen in the SBS TV series On The Ropes starring opposite Keisha Castle-Hughes (WHALE RIDER) and Jack Thompson (THE GREAT GATSBY) and 2017 was seen in the lead role of "Paris" in the eight-part BBC / Netflix series Troy: Fall Of A City for writer David Farr (THE NIGHT MANAGER) and director Owen Harris (BLACK MIRROR).

Prior to Troy, Louis starred in the psychological thriller Jack Goes Home opposite Rory Culkin, Britt Robertson and Natasha Lyonne, which premiered at the 2016 SXSW Film Festival and was released by Momentum Pictures. Louis stars in the indie The Honor Farm, which premiered at the 2017 SXSW Film Festival, and in Killing Animals, based on the novel by James Franco, who also stars in this portrait of a lost generation of California youths.

Louis' TV credits include The Fosters for FreeForm, Red Band Society for Fox, The Secret Circle for The CW and the BBC Australia series Out Of The Blue.

Louis is a classically trained theatre actor who played opposite Cate Blanchett in the Sydney Theatre Company production of War Of The Roses as well as Romeo & Juliet at the Shakespeare Youth Festival.