DESCRIPTION

British Flower is one of today's most sought after young actors. They have an impressive list of film credits including the lead role of Francine Tucker in the feature film "Public Eye", the lead role of Hayley Lachlan in "Love At The End Of The Road", and Wolf in the feature film "Station The Movie".

British is also the voice of P.M. Joan Hunting and the mind behind the Online Protestor in "Alone With The Darkest Of Minds".

British's television credits include April in the action/fantasy/sci-fi television series "Atomic Kingdom" Season 2, and Nurse Kelly in the horror television series "Axmo Deus; Hitchhiker" for VidiVerse.

British's theatre credits include leads in many Broadway productions such as, "Mamma Mia", "Wind In The Willows", "A Christmas Carol", "Cinderella", "Guys And Dolls", "The Wizard Of Oz", "Love Loss & Tragedy", "All The World Loves A Clown", "Complex", "Fright Night" and Australia's first ever stage production of "Yentl".

British will next be seen starring as the lead, Breanna Coslett in feature film "The Switchblade Sisterhood", alongside Kieran Hudson and Jason Spindlow; as well as Jonathan Adams' next feature short film "The Beginning", alongside Michael Budd and Kirstyn Niccolle Dryer; and returns for the third instalment of the "Atomic Kingdom" Series.
