

JAMIE GARNER

Bio

Jamie Garner is a multi-hyphenate artist of many skills, many accents, and many passports. They began their career touring Australia performing in children's theatre with Tony Bones Entertainment. After five years performing with American regional theatres, they moved to London to train at LAMDA. Their recent work as writer, performer and voiceover artist in London includes Babies and Bathwater (The Glitch, Dublin Gay Theatre Festival), We Never Get Off at Sloane Square (Drayton Arms, Park Theatre), Make Me (Spotify), and Something by Tolstoi (Trafalgar Studios). Their directorial debut Pieces of Us (EdFringe) was Offie-nominated, and they serve as Movement Consultant for Lionwoman Productions Texas. After fourteen years living abroad, they have recently returned home to Melbourne.

Jamie is proudly represented by Ian White Management.
