
MARQUEE

Tessa de Josselin

Tessa de Josselin is best known for her series regular role of Billie Ashford on Network Seven's Home and Away (2014-2017). But most recently, she played a leading role in Jenn Dupont, for the HBO/WarnerBros pilot Ke Nui Road (2022) by John Wells and Matt Kester.

In addition, Tessa has enjoyed several other leading television credits, including the role of Karen in the FX series Mr Inbetween (2022), Jes Roberts in SBS' crime miniseries, Dead Lucky (2018), Macy in ABC series Ready For This (2017), Krista in Tricky Business (2014) for Nine Network and the lead role of Samantha in two seasons of In Your Dreams (2012-2015) for the Seven Network and NDR Germany.

Tessa's feature film credits include Holding the Man (2015), directed by Neil Armfield, and a leading role in Umbrella Entertainment's comedy feature, Paper Champions (2020) which had its premiere at MIFF 2021.

She has also starred in several award-winning short films, such as Fat Salmon's Mukbang (2019) which was directed by Eliza Scanlen and premiered at Sydney Film Festival (2020). As well as Sink (2018) by Cloudy Rhodes, and Nerds in Love (2013) by Sean Rodrigo.