

Noah Douglas

Noah Douglas is an emerging actor based in Melbourne with a passion for storytelling and performance. He has previously been a member of the youth program at 16th Street Actors Studio and is currently undertaking the full time acting program at Film & TV Studio International. Noah has participated in numerous school musical productions and acting workshops, and in his final year of high school, he served as the Prefect of Performing Arts, further deepening his commitment to the craft. Although new to the industry, he is dedicated to honing his skills and eagerly embraces new challenges. Noah brings a unique perspective and a love for dramatic, comedic, and satirical performances. In the future, he hopes to explore a variety of roles that will help solidify and enhance his abilities on screen.
