About Donna

Donna has been studying the performing arts and performing since the early age of 5. Donna has a Bachelor of Education in Primary School Teaching and is going into her 4th year of qualified teaching. As well as this Donna has her DipABRSM in Vocal Teaching and has a natural love for teaching children of all ages from tots to teens. Donna is the post holder for music and drama in the school where she works and also runs an independent Performing Arts afterschool club.

Donna has completed all grades with ABRSM and RIAM for classical and musical theatre singing as well as musicianship and piano with many being awarded as distinctions. Donna is a passionate performer and has performed lead roles on many prestigious stages including The Gaeity Theatre, The Olympia Theatre, The Helix and The Moat Theatre. Donna has studied drama and musical theatre with The Gaeity School of Acting, The Irish Board of Speech and Drama as well Talented Kids and NPAS.

Donna has a very professional approach to anything she undertakes. Her passion, desire and commitment in this field of art is always above the 100%.
