

Georgie has been training in the performing arts industry since 2004 in dancing, musical theatre, classical singing, and screen acting. In 2021 she graduated from the Conservatorium of Music Melbourne in classical voice. Since 2019, Georgie has performed at Hamer Hall with the Melbourne Symphony Orchestra Chorus, performed at the MARS gallery fundraiser, and appeared as an ensemble member in Williamstown Musical Theatre Company's production of Mamma Mia. In 2022, Georgie made her professional debut appearance as a chorus member for Victorian Opera's Il Mago Di Oz. To finish off the year, Georgie was selected to sing for Broadway Unplugged at their December show.
