

Connor is a talented, Perth based actor with a passion to perform. He made his feature film debut in Paper Planes and made the directors short list for US feature film, Better Watch Out. He's filmed his second feature film, as Rex in the Australian horror, 3rd Night, and first Lead in a short film 'Checkpoint' which has plans to be made into a feature film in 2018.

Over the past eleven years, Connor has been cast in a number of short films, Web Series' and TV Commercials. His live theatre credits include; the National production of Chitty Chitty Bang Bang, in Perth and Tosca by West Australian Opera Company. He received rave reviews for his lead role, in the production of Bugsy Malone.

Connor's natural talent and down to earth personality are attributes, which led to him being signed with US Representation. Connor regularly self-tapes for US roles.

He enjoys playing instruments, such as the piano and drums, and also indulges in many sporting activities such as athletics, cross-country and calisthenics. However, he's always looking forward to that next big acting adventure!

Accents include: Standard American, New York, Southern American