

Enya is an Irish-Australian actor, dramaturg and teaching artist based in Melbourne. She is a graduate of NIDA's B.F.A Acting program (2017), as well as the full-time musical theatre course SHOWFIT (2014). Enya is currently completing her Master of Theatre (Dramaturgy) at VCA.

A versatile performer, Enya works in theatre, film, television, musical theatre, puppetry and voiceover. Her recent credits include the title roles in CDP's tours of Spot- Live on Stage and The Gruffalo's Child, The Moors (Siren Theatre), Revolt. She Said. Revolt Again (House of Sand) and Love, Me (The Old 505). Screen credits include the yet to be released feature film I'm Not Gay, a series of satirical skits on The Feed (SBS Viceland) and the short film Alienated.

Enya is a BBM Youth Scholarship Awardee. This opportunity saw Enya travel to Europe for three months to investigate methods of bettering the representation of women in art and the arts industry, and to pursue further artistic development opportunities.