

Carole Patullo

Carole Patullo is an actor, theatre-maker, teaching artist, voiceover artist and director, who has worked with major arts, community, business and health organisations for 34 years. She is an accomplished improviser and was a founding member of Troupe du Jour, an improvisation based company for 15 years. Carole has been nominated for 5 greenroom awards. She has written several plays and is currently artistic director with Dreamhouse Theatre, a youth based company on the Mornington Peninsula. Carole is also developing a new solo theatre work The strange Luck.

She most recently appeared in the International award winning short film Serving Joy.