

Teo Vergara

BIO

Teo (they/them) is a Naarm born performer who completed their final year of study at the Victorian College of the Arts (VCA) in 2020, where they graduated with a Bachelor of Fine Arts majoring in Music Theatre. Teo initially began their training in 2017 at Centrestage Performing Arts School's full-time course.

Since training in singing, dancing and acting, Teo has taken their skillset to work in areas of both stage and screen. From 2021-2022, they were a part of the Australian premiere production's original cast of "Jagged Little Pill: The Alanis Morissette Musical" dir. By Leah Howard, where they debuted in the ensemble and as understudy to the role of Jo. Teo made their screen debut in "Crazy Fun Park" directed and created by Nick Verso as Bridget. They then moved on to make their sophomore guest star debut in "Turn Up The Volume" as Quinn – another visible queer character for young audiences. Teo is leading the 2024 animated film "The Sloth Lane" as the voice of Laura.

Teo looks forward to being representation for the young queer and trans community throughout their career. Teo is proudly second-generation Panamanian/Australian. They would like to acknowledge that sovereignty was never ceded, and they are living and working on Aboriginal Land.

