VIC ZERBST She/They

Vic Zerbst is a writer, performer, and comedian. They have written comedy for The Chaser, created comedy videos for JUNKEE Media, and presented a weekly news-round-up for FBI's 'Backchat'. They are also a new cast member on John Conway Tonight at the Cafe Lounge.

Vic is a founder of the Sydney-based female sketch comedy collective 'Freudian Nip' and has performed at The 2015 Sydney Fringe, Wolf Comedy, Variety Fair, Hermann's Bar and a sold out season at the 2016 Sydney Comedy Festival. Freudian Nip also performed in and wrote content for The Slot for Fox 8, and more recently, SBS's The Feed.

As a public speaker and comedian, Vic has performed at TEDxYouth Sydney in 2010, Nailed It! at Giant Dwarf, and BAHFest (Festival of Bad ad Hoc Hypothesis) at the Powerhouse Museum as part of the Sydney Science Festival in 2016. They also debuted their solo comedy show, "Sex Brain" at the 2016 Sydney Fringe Festival.

As a musician, Vic underwent two years of classical opera training with Nicole Alexander. They have performed at the Conservatorium of Music, Angel Place Recital Hall, Sydney Theatre Company and NIDA. In 2014 they were also a member of the St Paul's Chapel Choir.

Vic has recently completed their final year at the University of Sydney, where they were the editor of the student newspaper, Honi Soit, in 2016. They remain an active member of the comedy revue community, having directed two shows at the Seymour Centre and performed in more than twenty others.
