Notes

Sammie Fuller is a Filipino actress and singer known for bringing depth, vulnerability and emotional truth to every character she plays. Her versatility allows her to embody a wide range of characters — from strong and powerful women to innocent, vulnerable and emotionally complex individuals.

With a strong foundation in theatre, Sammie trained with Queensland Theatre Company for five years, developing her craft through extensive performance and professional training. She has also studied at the Queensland Conservatorium, further strengthening her skills as a performer.

Sammie is particularly drawn to characters with emotional complexity and stories that explore the human experience. Whether portraying strength, vulnerability, innocence or power, she brings a grounded and a naturalistic quality to her performances.

Alongside acting, Sammie is passionate about telling meaningful stories, connecting with audiences and continuing to challenge herself through diverse and compelling roles.
