

EMMA JACKSON

ACTOR, SINGER & DANCER

A stage and screen performer based between Ballarat and Melbourne, Victoria, Emma studied her Bachelor of Performing Arts at Federation University and while there, performed in numerous shows including performing the roles of Matron in The Spirit Level - an Opera (musical direction Richard Chew) and Queen in Cymbeline (Dir. Kim Durban). A current historical interpreter and performer at Sovereign Hill Museum in Ballarat, she is also working on writing her first book of poetry.

0400 764 497

emjackson@live.com.au

TRAINING

BACHELOR OF PERFORMING ARTS

Federation University, Ballarat 2022-2024

Dance training undertaken - Ballet (Intermediate), Tap (Intermediate) & Jazz (Intermediate)

VOICE COACHING

2022 - Vocal Lessons

Current Pip Grummet

2022 Singer's Masterclass
Josh Pitterman

2021 Vocal Lessons
Leah Oswin

EXPERIENCE

STAGE

2026 DISCO - An Australian play
Miss Stutchberry

BPAC
Writer/Director: Ben Hockley

2024 William Shakespeare's Cymbeline
Queen

Federation University, Ballarat

2023 The Spirit Level
Matron

Federation University, Ballarat

2023 The Caucasian Chalk Circle
Lavrenti

Federation University, Ballarat

2019 Rock of Ages
Destiny/Featured Dance Ensemble

Mount Players Theatre Company,
Macedon

STATISTICS

Hair: Blonde

Vocal Range: E3-E6

Eyes: Blue

Belt to C5

Height: 5'6/ 167cm

SPECIAL SKILLS

ACCENTS

English RP

American (standard)

Scottish

STAGE COMBAT

Training - Federation University

Charlie Mycroft

- Solo and partnered scene work
- Weapons handling & training

EXPERIENCE

STAGE

2019 The Addams Family Musical
Ensemble/1950's Ancestor

Boilerhouse Theatre Company,
Sunbury