

William Prescott

Bio

William is an established 6'3, Australian actor in his 30s from Melbourne. He has just returned from living and working in Los Angeles for 2 years. His work abroad boasts a guest role on the hit Warner Bros comedy The Sex Lives of College Girls and a supporting role in the Netflix film We Have a Ghost starring Jennifer Coolidge and Anthony Mackie. He also worked for the official Netflix production of Stranger Things: The Experience for 6 months in Los Angeles. In Australia William is known for the Dare Iced Coffee "Callum Murray" commercial which ran for 6 years. He had a recurring role as Connor Carmichael on the hit ABC/Netflix show Glitch which won the AACTA and TV Week Logie Award for Most Outstanding Drama Series. He has starred in 9 commercials and voiced 800+ including recent work with Shaquille O'Neil in the ongoing Pointsbet campaign.

William has an extensive training resume including work at renowned school Anthony Meindl's Actor Workshop in LA. In Australia he has over 10 years training history at 16th Street Acting School and Brave Studios with Underbelly's Damian Walshe-Howling.

In addition to acting, William has over 20 years experience as a singer/guitarist with over 2000 gigs to his name in venues all over Australia. He has played in bands, duos and solo and has published songs on Spotify which have been played on commercial radio (Nova, Fox) and on National Television. He is a strong rock baritone/tenor likened to the voice of Mick Jagger and Freddy Mercury.

William is proudly represented by Ian White Management.