

Based in Perth, Western Australia, Keana Pillay is a young, vibrant and passionate actress who is known for her bubbly, charismatic personality.

Keana was accepted into one of just 70 positions for the prestigious Drama program at John Curtin College of the Arts, where she studied Drama ATAR, and has been in numerous theatre productions associated with the school.

Keana has worked with industry professionals such as Lisa Scott-Murphy, Myles Pollard, Damon Lockwood, and the staff at the Royal Academy of Dramatic Art in London and she has been featured as a lead role in two 'CAI' short films with Murdoch University. As well as being a talented young actress, Keana has a dancing and singing background that she has acquired from the time that she was 4 years old, making her a versatile performer. As well as this, she also has a background in guitar, gymnastics and swimming.

Keana's willingness to go beyond her comfort zone to try new things is what makes her fantastic to work with. She is very excited about furthering her career as an actress, gaining new experiences and learning new skills.