

Raised in the Performing Arts since 2007, Keira Blaikie has been in the world of entertainment her whole life; singing, acting and dancing is in her bones.

Keira trains @ Lee Academy which is the home for Keira in all things dance, aerial and acrobatics, her acting has involved intensive in-front of camera training at NIDA, and she is currently under tutelage with Ben Mathews @ 'Acting Mastery'.

In 2015 at 8 years old she starred in a short YouTube series 'Angels By The Sea'; Other highlights include: 'Aladdin' in "Ever Ever After" the musical (2021) and then a main female lead in "Grease - The Musical" as 'Rizzo' at Kincumber High (2023).

Keira is part of a teenage band 'STIX' as a pianist/vocalist that have performed at Laycock Theatre with YIPA (Youth in Performing Arts) and other various locations; She frequently busks at a variety of coastal beach markets and venues, upon popular demand of the locals and stall owners who frequent these events and love her singing.

Keira's favourite colour is green, she loves her cat 'Loki' and at any time she could randomly break into song.

A rising triple threat in the performance space with a love for creating stories and collaborating with like minds, Keira Blaikie brings a special light to any project she is part of.
