

Aiv Puglielli

An Italian-Australian dual national, Aiv Puglielli is a multidisciplinary actor, voice artist and musician.

A graduate of the West Australian Academy of Performing Arts, Bachelor of Arts (Music Theatre), he there created two in-house physical theatre sketches, 'Piano Recital' and 'Everybody Loves Louis'. Both works were shortlisted to appear before the Government House Foundation (the latter receiving Special Commendation). He toured a cross-cultural cabaret show, performed in five languages, as part of Fringeworld Perth 2020. Entitled 'Lady Moon and the Gondolier', he collaborated with Singaporean-Australian artists Deirdre Khoo and Germaine Png.

Trilingual, he has participated in film workshops with the Centro Sperimentale di Cinematografia in Rome, and previously received a diploma from the National Institute of Dramatic Art. Aiv is a regular collaborator with creative vocal ensemble Invenio Singers, led by prodigious vocalist/composer Gian Slater, exploring conceptual composition and improvisation.

Aiv has additionally narrated children's audiobooks and produced radio content, working with organisations such as Vision Australia and JOY 94.9.

Represented by:

John R Powell - A.A.M.

Ph: 61 3 8669 0980

Cell: 61 408 317 661

LA: 310 736 4185

E: jrp@aam.com.au

www.aam.com.au

www.aam.com.au/voices