

Kiana (she/her) has recently completed the full Australian tour of SIX as Henry VII's fourth wife Cleves (2019-2023). While compelling the crowds of Melbourne, Sydney, Brisbane, Adelaide, Canberra and Perth to "Get Down" Kiana received critical praise from esteemed theatre reviews. "Kiana Daniele a true delight with killer stage presence who in my opinion has the standout number 'Get Down' and just about walks away with the show " - "As Cleves, Kiana Daniele is the absolute coolest person on stage. Her energy is nothing short of infectious." - "Kiana is a towering presence onstage" - "Humour performers strive for".

During this time Kiana was also the proud recipient of the Sydney Theatre Award for Best Newcomer (2022) and Best Ensemble, Green Room Award (2023).

Kiana originally studied Music Theatre training at Showfit before completing a Bachelor of Fine Arts (Music Theatre) at the Victorian College of the Arts (VCA). Kiana then went on to make her professional debut in The Boy from Oz directed by Jason Langley (The Production Company) in 2018. Other professional highlights include portraying the role of Baby in Dirty Dancing (Immersive Cinema), Caitlin Martel in Secret Bridesmaids Business (Seven Studios).
