

Liberty's love for performing has seen her attend Stage & Screen, Voice and Accent Classes, and Musical Theatre classes with Ali Roberts Studio over the last 5 years. Liberty also has a passion for singing and enjoys regular solo parts in performances around Perth with the Australian Pop Academy.

Liberty was accepted in to the Gifted and Talented Specialist Drama Program at John Curtin College of the Arts in Fremantle after a competitive audition and selection process and loves studying Drama full-time. She grasps any opportunity to practice her craft, and is thankful to have filmed as leads in a music video, short film, and an online campaign.

Liberty's other interests include dance and all sports, and she also holds a European Passport.
