

KAREN COBBAN - BIO

Karen Cobban has been working professionally in film and theatre for over fifteen years. She has trained at AADA and The Actor's Centre, as well as Voiceover at AFTRS.

Karen has appeared as a lead and featured artist in a number of commercials, short films and corporate videos. Her TV credits include guest roles in Australia's Most Wanted (Grundy Productions), Life Support (SBS), All Saints (Network Seven), To Be or Not To Be (Movie Extra), a lead role in Deadly Women Season 3 (Beyond International) and most recently, support roles in Precinct 13 (Foxtel/13th Street) and Deadly Women Season 8.

She has appeared in numerous theatrical productions; the most recent being Death of Albatross by Laura Goodin (Moonbeam Productions 2011/2012), a number of rehearsed reads for The Merrigong Theatre Company, corporate role play simulations for UOW (2012 / 2013 / 2014) and is currently training and performing with Playback Theatre Wollongong.

Karen has also performed and toured in The Tapstar Show, a joint EGTC / Shoalhaven Council production (2006-2012), as well as Theatre in a Wheelbarrow productions for the Wollongong Botanic Garden's Education Unit (2010/2011).

Karen won Best Actress for Mr & Mrs Metcalfe enjoy the music of Elton John by Frank Leggett (Short & Sweet Sydney 2010).