

Bio: Angelina Curtis

Angelina is an energetic and endearing young actor, singer, musician and song writer. She has held lead roles in theatre productions of 'Peter Pan', 'What a Knight!', 'X Factory' and 'Legally Pink' and has featured in TV, print and digital campaigns of some of WA's biggest brands (RAC, City of Perth, Crown). She has performed as a vocal soloist at events at Perth Arena and Perth Concert Hall. Angelina is an award-winning singer, an accomplished songwriter, and been a key member of the Australian Girls Choir for 6 years. She trains under vocal coach, Chelsea Gibson (Aust Idol/The Voice), and is an excellent pianist and guitarist, writing original songs for both, and is adept at accompanying herself.

Film and TVC Directors have commented that Angelina is a very easy actor to work with. She has the lead role in a short film being produced in mid-2019, attained by auditioning for a different film and impressing the Director. She was recently filmed as a featured role in a music video for Jack River. Angelina has a mature understanding of people and interpersonal dynamics which she demonstrates in interpreting roles and characters. She studies Stage and Screen Acting weekly and is proficient in US standard and British accents.

Angelina performs virtually every week (acting, singing or playing her music) either at school, for auditions, acting classes, or at various competitions or talent shows.
