

BIANCA ZOUPPAS

Hey, I'm Bianca Zouppas, a Greek Australian Actor and Creator.

I've studied across the globe; Atlantic Acting School in New York, Upright Citizens Brigade in Los Angeles and I have a Bachelor's Degree in Contemporary Arts and Applied Theatre from my home country, Australia!

Acting for stage and screen has, and continues to be my area of focus. After winning the US Green Card Lottery in 2018 I relocated to Los Angeles in order to expand my career.

My passion for fostering supportive and sincere connections between people in the creative industry led me to create CALI - Creative Artistic Ladies Incorporated - which I have run since 2018. Additionally, I am the director of events and co-owner for The Sanctuary Cove Film Festival, which is held in Australia annually every November.
