'ANA IKA

ABOUT

'Ana Ika (she/her) is a queer Tongan Australian artist based on Gadigal land in Sydney. She graduated from WAAPA in 2021 with a Bachelor of Arts in Acting.

Since graduating, 'Ana has performed in a range of film, theatre and television, including Bump for Stan and Amadeus at the Sydney Opera House. A highlight of 'Ana's career so far, is narrating the audiobook for the first mainstream Tongan-Australian novel, Dirt Poor Islanders by Winnie Dunn.

Recently, 'Ana received a Performing Arts WA (PAWA) Award for Outstanding Achievement by an Interstate Artist for her role as Emmy in A Doll's House, Part 2 (The Blue Room Theatre & Red Ryder Productions).

'Ana recently wrapped filming on horror feature film, Tarantulas. In 2026, 'Ana will be performing in The Almighty Sometimes with Black Swan State Theatre Company.
