

MAURO BENEDICT FERRARI

Mauro Ferrari is an Italian-Australian actor based in between Sydney & Rome.

Born and raised in Sardinia from a family of theatre practitioners and proud owners of an Avant-Guarde Art-House Cinema, Mauro was inspired to pursue acting from an early age.

Featuring in the Italian films “The Naked Rose” and “L’Ospite”, Mauro moved to Australia in 2013 to refine his craft. Studying full-time at the Sydney Actors School, working with directors including Pip Edwards, Shane Anthony, Kevin Jackson, Anna Houston, Andrea Demetriades and Garth Holcombe, Mauro’s authenticity and courage with his work and fellow creators brands him as a remarkable and reliable actor.

Mauro’s favourite Movie? “The Pianist”.