
ABOUT

ME

EMMA

Jade

Emma Jade is a Gold Coast-born and raised film and television actress with five years of formal theatre training and a Bachelor of Film & Television from Bond University. Her screen work spans drama, mystery, suspense, and comedy, with a strong focus on creating nuanced and authentic characters.

Emma is best known for her role as Kate Ainsley in the independent Australian feature film The Teenage Condition, a 90-minute romantic comedy, and as Kiera in the mystery-suspense short film Bitter Coffee, for which she received a Best Actress award. Bitter Coffee has been recognised by film festivals internationally, including the World Film Festival in Cannes, Benelux International Film Festival, Liverpool Shorts International Film Festival, and Milan Film Festival..

Her other screen credits include leading roles in the drama short film Fledgeling as Riley and the thriller/suspense short film Unanswered as Beu. Alongside her formal theatre background, Emma continues to develop her screen performance through ongoing classes, workshops, professional intensives, and stunt training for camera.

Emma is passionate about storytelling and bringing emotionally grounded, authentic performances to a diverse range of characters and genres.