

Stephanie Taylor is an actor and singer who has always loved the stage and has performed since the age of 3. She recorded her first solo with the Redland City Choir at the age of 4. She is a member of ASTA at Sheldon College and is currently participating in Musical Theatre and HipHop lessons. She has a passion for horses and has started horse riding lessons as well as learning the guitar. Stephanie reveals creative expression through her art of drawing. She is able to memorise scripts/song lyrics within minutes and is a lovely girl to work with.