

KRISTINE ANNE PARINO

Kristine Anne is an Australian-based actress whose creative journey is rooted in a lifelong passion for performance. Born in the Philippines and raised in Canberra from the age of nine, she discovered her calling early through musical theatre—an experience that shaped her discipline, emotional range, and commitment to storytelling. Now fully focused on acting for screen, Kristine is dedicated to building a career in acting for Film and Television. A multi-dimensional performer with a strong foundation in singing, she approaches her craft with intensity, curiosity, and a continuous drive for growth. Her training at Screenwise Film & TV School in Surry Hills, Sydney marks a pivotal chapter in her professional acting debut and the next phase of her career. Alongside acting, Kristine holds a Bachelor's degree in Film Production, a background that strengthens her work as an actor through a deep understanding of visual storytelling and character-driven narratives. She remains creatively active through various passion projects and original screen work, always with acting at the centre of her focus. Kristine brings a strong visual presence both in front of and behind the camera. Purpose-driven and screen-focused, she is committed to establishing herself as a compelling and versatile actress in the industry.
