

RUBY MAISHMAN

MORRISSEY MANAGEMENT

In 2019, Ruby completed her actor training at the Western Australian Academy of Performing Arts (WAAPA). Whilst studying, Ruby was honoured to receive the award for Best Female Actor at the WA Screen Academy, for her role in the short film Hy_Brain. Most recently on screen, Ruby starred in Home & Away, The Lost Flowers of Alice Hart, and Colin From Accounts S2. On stage, she is delighted to have been part of Bell Shakespeare's recent productions: Romeo and Juliet, Coriolanus and Julius Caesar. Ruby deeply values new work, and was grateful to appear recently in the world premiere of Callum Mackay's two-hander play The Last Train To Madeline, as well as Joanna Erskine's People Will Think You Don't Love Me.

— FILM & TELEVISION

2024 Colin From Accounts	Constable Jenny	Dir. Robyn Butler & Wayne Hope
2023 Home and Away	Kate Vella	Dir. Ian Watson
2023 The Lost Flowers of Alice Hart	Young June	Dir. Glendyn Ivin
2019 Hy_Brain (Short)	Gale	Dir. Jessica Russell

— THEATRE

2026 Julius Caesar (Bell Shakespeare)	Cinna/Octavius	Dir. Peter Evans
2025 Coriolanus (Bell Shakespeare)	Understudy	Dir. Peter Evans
2024 People Will Think You Don't Love Me	Tommy	Dir. Jules Billington
2024 The Last Train To Madeline	Madeline	Dir. Hayden Tonazzi
2023 Romeo and Juliet (Bell Shakespeare)	Understudy	Dir. Peter Evans
2021 Dead Skin	Maggie	Dir. Kim Hardwick

rubymaishman@gmail.com

0425 838 893