

Recently graduated from JMC Academy with a Bachelor's degree in acting, Marley is an upcoming talent who gained a passion for performing at a young age. Beginning his career on the musical side with ensemble appearances in 'Perfectly Imperfect' & 'High School Musical Junior', and played the lead role in *'We Will Rock You: The Musica*l'.

He continued expanding his skills on the stage, portraying a range of characters such King Henry VIII in Shakespears Henry VIII, Thoreau at downstairs Belvoir in 'First Love is the Revolution', Stage hand and performer in 'Till The Stars Come Down' at KXT on Broadway. And most recently starred in 'A Gumtree on Summer Road' at Qtopia, which was nominated for Best in Theatre at the Sydney Fringe Festival.

After gaining experience in front of the camera for a selection of short films and commercials, he plans on continuing to learn more about the arts and put his best work forward.