

Daniel has been helping others achieve success as a private acting coach and mentor for the past four years. He adores the craft and collaborating with artists from all walks of life. Daniel has qualifications working on both sides of the camera, having received a Bachelor of Fine Arts: Musical Theatre (VCA) and a Bachelor of Communications: Film and TV (UTAS).

Daniel has most recently played Michael Clarke in 'Warnie' for Nine Media and appeared as Matthew Childs in 'Neighbours' for Amazon.

Recently on stage, he has appeared as Matthew Sutton in 'Voyagers' and swung on 'Not Finished With You Yet'. Daniel is most recognisable as playing J. Finch/Zac Smith in the record-breaking Melbourne season of 'Puffs' at the Alex Theatre, as well as the Australian tour (2018-2019).

In 2017 Daniel performed the role of Aeneas in MTM's 'Paris: A Rock Odyssey' at the Melbourne Recital Centre and toured with the Australasian company of 'Paw Patrol Live - Race to the Rescue'. Other theatre credits include Joe in Vic Theatre Company's 'The Gathering', Gabe in 'First Date' with Pursued By Bear, Stevens in Doorstep Arts 'Dogfight' as well as a member of the ensemble in Opera Australia's 'Aida'. Daniel is currently appearing as Private Walter Lockhart in Impel Pictures 'Fallen' which is on the short film festival circuit. He has also appeared in several commercial campaigns for brands such as Ladbrokes, Lexus, the AFL, the NRL, Coles and more.
