After graduating from the Victorian College of the Arts, Claire Warrillow had the opportunity to perform in some of Shakespeare's most renowned works, playing Juliet in "Romeo and Juliet" and Lady Macbeth in "Macbeth." Claire originated the role of Billie in the children's comedy "Billie and the Outback Dinosaurs" and made her music theatre debut in Australian musical "The Sunshine Club" written and directed by Wesley Enoch.

Claire has a strong appreciation for Australian theatre, and she is privileged to have been a part of promoting it through her work. Passionate about performing arts education, Claire has taught in remote and regional communities throughout the country, working with young women to find their voices through performing arts.
