

Di Smith has enjoyed a varied and highly visible career as an actor on screen and on stage with the Sydney Theatre Company, MTC, Malthouse, SATC, commercial and independent productions, and musical theatre. She travelled on The Great Outdoors for Network Seven and appeared in many of Australia's best-known television dramas, from The Restless Years to Redfern Now's telemovie Promise Me.

Most recent continuing roles in the 2018 series Reckoning as Dotty (Playmaker / Sony Pictures), as Deputy Grantham in Puberty Blues, and as "The Doc" in Skinford –Chapter Two

She is best known and well-loved as Dr Alex Fraser in the series A Country Practice

Recent stage credits include Nurse Ratched in One Flew Over the Cuckoo's Nest for Sport for Jove, and Leila in The Shifting Heart for White Box/Seymour

A full Biography is available at www.morrissey.com.au

As producer, she has worked with writer /director Matt Day on short film. The Mother Situation (2017 Tropfest Winner, Best Film, Best Screenplay , Best Actress) Perry (2016 St Kilda Film Festival, Palm Springs Film Festival) Charlie's Mum (2015)

She also produced the TV pilot Subject to Change (2014), and for stage, she produced and performed Peeled written for her by Catherine Strickland at Adelaide Fringe 2014, River of Arts Festival NSW, and a season at Brown's Mart , Darwin.