As demonstrated in his CV, Ash has had the opportunity to showcase his talent through many stage and television appearances. This has included short film roles, stage roles and television. As a talented actor and magician, Ash now has a following on TikTok that exceeds 5.5 million young people. His Instagram following is upwards of 192k.

In 2019 Ash graduated from the prestigious McDonald College in Sydney where he has been immersed in the Acting Stream for the last 2 years. His 2019 HSC individual drama performance was selected from the thousands of drama students across NSW to be performed in the 2020 HSC On Stage. Ash has been accepted into NIDA's 2020 intake of 20 students for the Acting for Stage and Screen Diploma. He has chosen this path in order to remain flexible for local or overseas projects.

Ash has just finished filming RFDS (working title), an Endemol Shine Banks Production for the Seven Network. He will be a familiar face to many Australians by early 2021.
