SHORT BIO

Born and raised in Tasmania, Victoria began dancing, singing and acting from a young age. Victoria also enjoys making art, photography, and filmmaking. Her passion in filmmaking lead her to perform in and film behind the scenes footage for Southern Cross Television's 'Kids Live' in 2013. Victoria is graduating with a Bachelor of Arts in Music Theatre at WAAPA in late 2019. During her studies she played the roles of Candi in Rock of Ages, Joanne in Company, and Ursula March in Sweet Charity. Victoria was a finalist in the 2018 Julie Michael awards with her self-devised cabaret 'I Cain't Swipe Left - A Tinder Cabaret'. Victoria was also cast in the 2019 WA screen academy short film 'Sundown' which will be aired on Channel 9.
