Louis' on-screen presence, focus, and dedication to the characters he plays have taught him to approach all areas of his working life with a high level of quality and performance.

His recent features include web-series Mr. Feminism, and short film God in The Sky, he is also set to appear on the new NBC hit series "Young Rock".

Being an actor and classically trained singer based in Queensland, Louis is currently studying at Queensland University of Technology (Bachelor of Fine Arts - Acting) on a scholarship. Throughout his life, he has sought to display his variety of talents through the right platforms and opportunities.

Having been born in China and later raised in the culture of Australia, Louis is fluent in both English and Chinese (Mandarin), giving him an edge over others when it comes to international availability.

Louis is also a dedicated musician with advanced skills in saxophone and composition.
