

Katie Long

Biography

Katie is an actor, singer, and musician based in Naarm (Melbourne).

They have appeared in such productions as award-winning 'Hold Still' (dir. Em Dynes), 'Telling Tales' (Melbourne Shakespeare Co.), and award-nominated video phenomenon 'I Need You To See Me' (Vidya Makan).

In addition to participating in developmental workshops for Australian works like 'Laurinda' (Melbourne Theatre Co.) and 'Residue' (Antipodes Theatre Co.), they have also written and performed in their own cabarets.

Currently, Katie is pursuing opportunities in voiceover and is furthering their studies in both voice and screen acting.

Outside acting, they teach classical violin and music theory, committed to fostering an accessible learning environment for their students. They previously served on the Be You Group board and taught at CentreStage Performing Arts Academy.
