

Louis Lè

Morrissey
Management

16 Princess Ave, Rosebery NSW 2018

(02) 9663 0100
erin@morrissey.com.au
mark@morrissey.com.au

Louis' presence, focus, and dedication to the characters he plays have taught him to approach all areas of his working life with a high level of quality and performance.

Being an actor and classically trained singer currently based in Melbourne, Louis was accepted into Queensland University of Technology's (QUT) Bachelor of Fine Arts (Acting) course on an excellence scholarship. Throughout his life, he has sought to display his variety of talents through the right platforms and opportunities.

He recently featured in the Red Stitch Actors' Theatre production of "CAUGHT" by Christopher Chen, directed by Jean Tong, as Lin Bo. His screen features include ABC Drama "Troppo", NBC hit series "Young Rock", and upcoming Netflix original feature film "True Spirit".

Having been born in Ningbo, China, and later raised in the culture of Melbourne, Australia, Louis is fluent in both English and Chinese (Mandarin), as well as the dialect of his hometown - Ningbonese, giving him an edge over others when it comes to international availability.

Louis is also a dedicated musician with advanced skills in saxophone, flute, and composition.