HIGHLIGHTS

Keavong is an actor, singer-songwriter and comedian with over 12 years of experience in the industry across Film, TV and Stage. Born in New Zealand to Cambodian parents, Keavong honed his talents in the boy group The Mama's Boys working on his debut musical comedy "Brother's Book Club". Upon the group's indefinite hiatus, in 2024, Keavong found his big break in award winning short film "The Hoist" playing the role of Phil. The Film went on to win many awards and have multiple nominations while on the festival circuit (including a contender for the AACTA 2025 awards)

ABOUT KEAVONG

Apart from acting, Keavong is a multitalented individual with skills varying from being fluent in the Cambodian language (khmer), singing with his tenor range, voice over, stand-up comedy, drag performing, writing for screen and stage.

Keavong loves traveling, reading and eating.

Fun fact is that he is a white belt in Sword, learning Korean and working on writing his music.

PAST WORKS.

Being a part of the 11 member boy group The Mama's Boys Collective, it propelled Keavong into the musical artist he is today.

He acted as the assistant director as well as the core members for the music of the stage show "Brother's Book Club" utilising his songwriting and rapping skills.

The group caught the eye of director, Grace Uther where the group had a TV special on ABC iView.
