

Daniel Izard is an actor and model born and raised in Sydney. Growing up, Daniel has been lucky to explore many different avenues in his life, representing his school in water polo and getting modelling training through Modelle Academy, putting his full 6'4 and dashing good looks to work.

Daniel completed an Advanced Diploma in Screen and Media at Sydney Actors School in 2025, which allowed him to transform into a lion under the mentorship of Lyn Pierce, voice commercials with Stephen Hunter, and learn Tai Chi with fight director Tim Dashwood. While studying, Daniel appeared in three plays: Face to Face (dir. Felix Williamson), Little Girls Alone in the Woods (dir. Kim Hardwick), and Metamorphoses (dir. Andrea Demetriades), as well as a supporting lead in his cohort's short film "Swedish Death Cleaning".

Telling the stories of people from all walks of life and sitting deeply with each of these characters he's played has given Daniel a new perspective on the world. Daniel is an actor with a warm heart and an open mind, eager to tell the world as many stories as he can.
