

Stacey is Perth based actor. Originally from the UK, Stacey relocated to Australia in 2012. She has completed a Diploma in Acting and has since continued to study screen acting.

Stacey's passion lies within drama and comedy roles. Stacey brings honesty, natural, and intriguing performances to the camera. Stacey has been cast in short films, theatre productions and commercials. In 2023 Stacey won "Best Supporting Actress" at the Old Mill Theatre Awards and nominated "Best Actress" at the 2023 Finley Awards for her role as Sandra in Beautiful Thing. Stacey cowritten, produced and performed in "Me Too The Musical" which was listed as Urban List's "8 of Fringe World Best Comedy Shows 2021".

Stacey is trained in Australian, Standard British, Received Pronunciation, Cockney, Northern English and Standard American accent.